RE: Community Development Department Report

1. 240 Grant – Redevelopment

The former house at this property has been demolished in preparation for the new house construction.

2. 401 55th Street – Former Tracy's

A complete application for ZBA/PC review has been received by the Community Development Department for the redevelopment of the property for a multiple tenant commercial building including a drive-through restaurant. The drive-through facility required Conditional Use review by the ZBA/PC for recommendation and Village Board for final decision. If anyone has questions regarding the project, please contact the Community Development Department at 630-286-5412.
