Clarendon Hills Police Personal Safety Tips

A colorful illustration of a yellow police car. A large orange padlock is attached to the front of the car. A person is standing next to the car, holding a smartphone. A blue key fob is on the ground next to the car. In the background, there are stylized green and orange leaves. A blue shield with a car icon and a lock is also present. A yellow gear icon is to the right of the shield. The background is a dark blue gradient.

Always lock your home and car
Always be alert and aware of your surroundings and the people around you
Whenever possible, travel with a friend
Stay in well-lit areas as much as possible
If you see something say something (DIAL 911)

School is back in session. Let's all keep an eye out for children walking and biking to school.

Recent Training, Meetings and Events

- This month's Police Law online training pertains to U.S. Supreme Court Decisions
- Sgt Finfrock responded to a MERIT drone unit call out.

Recent events:

August 29, 10:42am, officers spoke with Jewel management regarding a recent retail theft. Officers were able to identify the heavyset individual, wearing a blue Cubs sweatshirt, who stole liquor the previous week. It should be noted that I merely bring up the Cubs sweatshirt because that is how officers were able to identify the subject, not to disparage their fanbase. I will mention, however, that I find it hard to believe a person wearing a Sox sweatshirt would stoop to such levels. This matter is pending.

August 29, 11:45am, officers responded to the station for a fraud report. The victim received a past due notice on an account he never opened.

August 30, 6:24pm, officers spoke with a resident regarding an identity theft. The victim's mortgage payment was intercepted in the mail and cashed by an unknown offender. Pending.

August 31, 11:26am, officers responded to a residence on N. Jackson for a verbal domestic. Officers gave advice.

August 31, 11:44pm, officers responded to an apartment at Clarendon Arms for a tenant / landlord dispute. Officers gave information.
