A press release prepared by the DuPage County State's Attorney is attached.

Bellwood Man Charged with Aggravated Robbery In Grocery Store Parking Lot

WHEATON – DuPage County State's Attorney Robert B. Berlin announced today that bond has been set for a Bellwood man alleging he stole a woman's purse outside the Jewel grocery store located in Clarendon Hills. Enkhbold Naidandavaa, 20 (d.o.b. 6/14/1996) of 3604 St. Paul Avenue, appeared in bond court this morning where Judge Richard Russo set bond in the amount of $100,000 with 10% to apply. Naidandavaa has been charged with one count of Aggravated Robbery, a Class 1 Felony and one count of Aggravated Battery, a Class 3 Felony.

It is alleged that on January 5, 2017, at approximately 8:30 p.m., Naidandavaa, wearing a ski mask and dark clothing, approached his victim from behind while she was loading groceries into her vehicle. It is further alleged that as he snatched the woman's purse from her, he pulled a gun on the woman and then pushed her to the ground. The gun was later determined to be an air-soft pistol. After stealing the woman's purse, Naidandavaa fled the scene. He was apprehended by officers with the Willowbrook Police Department four blocks from the store approximately ten minutes later and taken into custody without incident.

"The allegations against Mr. Naidandavaa are extremely disturbing," Berlin said. "This type of outrageous conduct will not be tolerated in DuPage County and will be met with the full force of the law. I would like to thank the Clarendon Hills and Willowbrook Police Departments for their work on this case and for the quick apprehension of the suspect. I would also like to thank Assistant State's Attorney Jim French for his efforts in this case as well."

Clarendon Hills Police Chief, Boyd Farmer, added “the successful arrest was a direct result of the quick response from Clarendon Hills officers. They were able to coordinate efforts with Willowbrook, Hinsdale and Westmont police officers that ultimately led to Naidandavaa’s apprehension.”

Naidandavaa’s next court appearance is scheduled for January 17, 2017 in front of Judge Liam Brennan.

Members of the public are reminded that this complaint contains only charges and is not proof of the defendant’s guilt. The defendant is presumed innocent and is entitled to a fair trial in which it is the government’s burden to prove his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

January 3, 2:47 am, officers were called to the area of Ann and Sheridan where it was reported four male juveniles were attempting to pull a street sign out of the ground. He was charged with damage to village property and consumption of alcohol by minor.

A 63 year old Willowbrook woman, while walking to her vehicle, was approached by the offender, who attempted to take her purse. The victim resisted, which caused the offender to pull out an "air-soft" gun and stick it into her chest. Once the victim saw the gun she stopped resisting. The offender took her purse and ran south from the scene. Clarendon Hills' officers responded and called surrounding towns for assistance. Officers established a perimeter and a short time later the offender was taken into custody by Willowbrook officers. The offender is a 20 year old man from Bellwood. He was charged with aggravated robbery and aggravated battery. He was transported to DuPage County Jail.
