

VILLAGE OF CLARENDON HILLS POLICE DEPARTMENT

DATE: September 22, 2022
To: Village Manager Barr
From: Chief P. Dalen
Subject: Weekly Activity Report

---

Recent Training, Meetings and Events

- This month's Police Law online training pertains to U.S. Supreme Court Decisions.
- Officers continue roll call training on the impending bail reform law.
- Officers are completing Court Smart online training.

Recent events:

September 17, 2:04am, officers responded to the apartments at 284 Woodstock for a disturbance. The complainants advised that while talking in the parking lot, a highly intoxicated shirtless man approached and started to yell and berate them. Officers spoke with the subject, who eventually went back into his apartment without incident.

September 19, 7:25am, officers responded to 285 N. Richmond for a crash. One of the participant's did not have a valid driver's license or insurance. The subject was taken to the station and cited.

September 20, 7:00am, officers responded to a hit and run crash on Rte. 83 and 55th. Our victim advised that a black Chevy Tahoe rear-ended her then took off. The Tahoe's registration started with the letter DK. Pending.

September 20, 8:52pm, officers responded to an apartment at Clarendon Arms for a suspicious incident. The complainant advised that while trying to open his safe, he found a key broken off in the lock. It is unknown who had been trying to gain entry.

September 21, 9:00am, officers were called to Holmes and 57th for a disturbance / road rage incident. It was reported that one driver started to turn left in front of another driver, causing a near miss situation. The driver that was cut off took exception, stopped his car, and approached the other driver with a knife. Pushing and punching ensued. Pending.

September 21, 5:07pm, officers spoke with a resident regarding ongoing fraudulent activity. For the past year, the complainant has been having her credentials used to open various lines of credit.

September 21, 6:07pm, officers responded to an apartment at 285 N. Richmond for a burglary complaint. The victim related that an unknown person entered his unlocked apartment and stole money. Pending.